(See supplement to local laws.)

CHAPTER 469.

[Published May 31, 1865.]

AN ACT authorizing Caroline Messner, a minor, to convey certain real estate therein described.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Caroline Messner, a minor, of the age of eighteen years or upwards, of the town of Richfield, in the county of Washington, in this state, is hereby authorized and empowered, in the same manner and with the same effect as though she were of full age, to convey and transfer unto Henry Uhlwelling, or his grantee, by a good and sufficient deed of conveyance, with or without covenants, all her right, title, interest and estate in and to the following described lands and real estate, that is to say: The northwest quarter of the northwest quarter, and the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section five (5) in township number eleven (11) north, of range number eighteen (18) east, in Washington county, Wisconsin.

May convey real estate, &c.

SECTION 2. This act is hereby declared to be a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 10, 1865.
